1. INTRODUCTION :

As a fee-based financial advisory service credit rating is obviously extremely useful to investors, corporate (borrowers), banks and financial institutions. Rating is an opinion regarding securities expressed in standard symbols any other standardized form assigned by a credit rating agency and used by the issuer of such security Credit rating coverage in India started only recently. It was in the late eighties (1987) with the first rating agency, At present there are four rating agencies namely CRISIL,ICRA and CARE, and Fitch rating India Ltd. are popular.

CRISIL was jointly promoted by ICICI nationalized and foreign banks and insurance companies in 1987. ICRA was promoted in 1991, by IFCI and 21 other shareholders comprising of nationalized and foreign banks and insurance companies. It is the second rating agency to be established in India. CARE was incorporated in 1992 with the combined efforts of IDBI and several other banks and insurance companies. Fitch Rating India Ltd.-Fitch India Ltd was born following the merger of duff and Phelps (1998) and DCR in 2001.Fitch India in a 100% subsidiary of Fitch IBCA and is the only foreign operation in the country.

1.1 NEED AND IMPORTANCE OF THE STUDY :

Credit rating is used as critical inputs in determining investment portfolio. Credit rating agencies play a pivotal role in providing the service and information, and thereby facilitate the investment in assessing the risk. There is a need to understand the ratings of credit rating agencies as an investor uses the rating to assess the risk level and compares the offered rate of return trade-off with his expected rate of return (for the particular level of risk) to optimize. Credit rating plays a key role in financial markets by obligations in either local or foreign country.

4.RATING PROCESS OF CREDIT RATING AGENCIES

4.1 CRISIL’S RATING PROCESS (sources :<http://www.crisil.com/rating-process-chart>)

4.2 ICRA PROCESS: (sources: Institute of chartered accountant of India)

4.3 CARE PROCESS (sources :<http://www.carerating.com/rating/process>)

4.4 FITCH RATING PROCESS(sources: <http://www.fitchrating.com>)

The entire process of all the rating agencies involves a series of steps and relevant information is put into proper evaluation and analysis. All the rating agencies in India follow, more or less similar process in assigning the rating. The practices of process reflects Moody's, Standard and Poor's of International Rating agencies.

5. RATING METHODOLOGY OF CREDIT RATING AGENCIES :

Rating Methodology refers to the use and application of tools in the rating .Rating is undertaken by four different agencies in India, namely, CRISIL, ICRA, CARE and Fitch India, with minor differences in the four, the basic parameters of all of them remain the same. However, presentation of each category has its own value and implication. And it is observed that all rating agencies in India more or less follow similar methodology which is based on international practice of their counter parts.

The methodology encompasses all the key factors for rating assessment and assignment. Rating agencies focused on wide range of factors ranging from macro level factors to micro level factors. The both qualitative as well as quantitative factors are considered by the agencies before assigning any ratings. The common and important factors are considered and analyzed in rating methodology by different rating agencies.

These agencies follows typically CRAMEL model to evaluate the debt servicing capabilities of banks and institutions. CRAMEL stands for Capital adequacy, Resources, Asset quality, Management quality, Earnings potential and Liquidities .

CONCLUSION:o

Indian credit rating agencies have made strategic alliance with reputed international agencies. The rating agencies in India have to evolve their own methodologies, process, and symbols within the context of macro-economic environment. The analyses and assessments provided by various credit rating agencies provide investors with information and insight that facilitates their ability to examine and understand the risks and opportunities associated with various investment environments.
